

Student Conduct and Discipline Code

To the extent the BOCES provides an educational program and has not adopted policies pertaining to student conduct and discipline, the BOCES shall follow the student conduct and discipline policies of the applicable school district. For purposes of this policy, the applicable school district is the student's district of attendance.

The applicable school district's student conduct and discipline policies shall be implemented by the BOCES, in cooperation with the school district as appropriate and in accordance with applicable law, including but not limited to state and federal law pertaining to students with disabilities.
